NAME OF PERSON CONTACTED: Robert Witbolsfeugen

On 11-24-97, at approximately 0945 hrs., I was contacted by Mr. Robert Witbolsfeugen.

Mr. Witbolsfeugen stated he had spoken with John Bruton over the past weekend.

According to Mr. Witbolsfeugen, they discussed the investigation and that Mr. Bruton told him he was hiring a private investigator to inquire about Justin's death. Mr. Witbolsfeugen stated they also discussed bringing in a psychic.

Mr. Witbolsfeugen stated he had found two movie passes dated 10-20-87 that Anastasia had purchased. The movie was the Devil's Advocate. Mr. Witbolsfeugen remembers Anastasia telling him that Justin believed this to be the best movie he had ever seen. Mr. Witbolsfeugen said he was going to rent the video and suggested I do the same.

Mr. Witbolsfeugen stated Anastasia and Justin had purchased wedding rings at a jewelry store in North Kansas City on 10-04-97. Mr. Witbolsfeugen was not sure if Justin was present when the rings were purchased. Mr. Witbolsfeugen stated the rings could be used if a psychic is called in.

Mr. Witbolsfeugen again brought up Justin's answering machine. I informed Mr. Witbolsfeugen I would ask Mr. Bruton about the machine.

Mr. Witbolsfeugen stated he believes there was some plan in place that resulted in the deaths of Anastasia and Justin. This plan involved several people. If there was a plan then he concludes there has to be someone out there with the information.

Mr. Witbolsfeugen stated that I should try to get confirmation on who was sitting where in the vehicle and on what side. Mr. Witbolsfeugen stated this may be used later to "break someone's story up, unexpected like.". Mr. Witbolsfeugen suggested fiber evidence should be utilized to determine seating positions.

End of report.
