On 10-23-97 at approximately 1520 hrs., Sgt. J. Becker and I arrived at the apartment of the victim's boyfriend, Justin Bruton. Prior to attempting contact with Mr. Bruton the parking area was checked for the vehicle believed to be owned by Mr. Bruton. There was no vehicle found that matched the description given for this vehicle.

After knocking on the apartment door, there was no response from inside. My business card was left in the doorjamb requesting he call me when he returns.

After exiting the building contact was made with one of the building tenants. The tenant was asked if he knew Mr. Bruton and he stated he knew him only as a tenant. The subject informed us Mr. Bruton usually parks his vehicle outside the south entrance (location we were talking to this subject) and he did not see Bruton's vehicle there. The assumption was made Bruton was not home at this time. No further information was obtained from this subject.

While still in the parking area, I called the number given to me for Bruton and the answering machine activated. I left my name, telephone number and requested Mr. Bruton call me. I also left the date and time of the message.

A further check of the parking area and the surrounding area of the apartment complex was done and no vehicle matching that of Bruton's could be located.

End of report.
